Re: Scott M. Favre Public Adjuster, LLC

To Whom It May Concern:

As an attorney licensed in the states of Mississippi, Alabama, Texas, Georgia and Tennessee, I have had the privilege of working with Scott M. Favre Public Adjuster, LLC on matters in different states. Most recently, Mr. Favre and I worked together to assist a large school district in Texas to recover financially from the devastation caused by Hurricane Ike. Mr. Favre's work was instrumental in resolving the school district's huge insurance claim, and he was able to obtain tens of millions of dollars of state and federal grant money for the school district that they otherwise would not have received. The Texas state governor, Rick Perry, personally presented Mr. Favre with one such grant check for the school district.

I was fortunate enough to work with Mr. Favre on numerous insurance claims in Mississippi after Hurricane Katrina. After Katrina, Mr. Favre assisted governmental entities throughout Mississippi --- including counties, cities, school districts and institutions of higher learning --- to obtain state and federal disaster grants. Mr. Favre and I worked together to resolve many insurance claims for these institutions, which sometimes ran into tens of millions of dollars.

I have worked closely with Mr. Favre on many different sizes and types of disaster claims, and have been able to observe his work firsthand. Mr. Favre is honest, diligent and hard-working. He really cares about his clients and advocates unceasingly for them. That is true whether his client is a billion-dollar corporation, a large governmental entity, or the distraught owner of a mobile home in a rural county. In my opinion, that is what differentiates Mr. Favre from others in his field. His work is his passion.

Mr. Favre is also extremely proficient at obtaining the maximum insurance payment or grant money for his clients. He has assembled a team of experts who know how to evaluate and document disaster damage efficiently and properly, which is a crucial but often-overlooked factor in applying for grants or making an insurance claim. It has been a pleasure to work with Mr. Favre and his professional team in Mississippi and Texas. I recommend Scott M. Favre Public Adjuster, LLC without reservation.

Sincerely,

Tina L. Nicholson
